

Heat transfer oil

TOOL-THERM SH-3

Operational use: +30°C up to +360°C

Adapted for temperatures until +360°C

The heat transfer oil TOOL-THERM SH-3 is a high quality special oil which can be used in a temperature domain from +30°C until +360°C.

On the contrary to other kind of heat transfer liquids, the TOOL-THERM SH-3 is not classified as poisonous. Therefore it is not considered as hazardous goods in the sense of transport regulations.

Technical specifications

Description:	mineral oil
Domain of application:	only adapted for the use in temperature control units
Maximum operating temperature:	360°C
Minimum operating temperature:	approx. 30°C
Colour:	yellowish / light brown
Water solubility:	difficultly soluble
Poisonous category:	none - no hazardous goods

This heat transfer oil replaces all sorts of heat transfer liquids former supplied by TOOL-TEMP. Technically seen it has better properties, a higher temperature domain and can be mixed with most mineral heat transfer oils.

Available packing units

Barrel of 200 litres (180 kg)

Can of 25 litres (22,5 kg)

Will be delivered in plastic canister

TOOL-TEMP®